Stating that we put chairs into the cloak room (Which they were already their). I explained that the room was NOT a mess all things were put back kitchen counter wiped etc. She said is sending out a letter to all user groups on what she expects to be done and how she wants too see the room. Will have a pic/drawing also.

KEY: !!! Rundal park management after our talk on Oct. 7th is still claiming a member of the club was given the park key at the June meeting. Even after trying to explain all that I did to try to find out about this key. Again contact me ASAP if you know anything.

This happened IN BROAD DAYLIGHT at lunch time with a man who kicked in her new steel front 10 month door (dead bolt was locked). She was only gone an hour. A neighbor seen this and took pics but they were to blurry. This person had a accomplice a woman driver who kept watch & for a quick getaway. Owner is being asked to list her items and their worth.

Treasures report: read and club has a balance in the bank with some expense's to come out

Libraries report: Paul asked if the club could purchase two books for the library. Moved to buy the books.

Presentation: presentation this month was on toning. This was very interesting on the various ways to artificially tone coins to make them looked aged. You could definitely see the difference compared to a natural toned coin. Paul even added his own experiment 's which he did himself (one with egg) trying to tone coins and showed the timed results and how it looked. This was also Very interesting Thanks Paul.

Rundal Park: Sharon spoke of Rundal park and that it is under new management again. The contract was signed for the remainder of the year till Dec. and the dates were confirmed for 2016. Cards will be mailed in the next newsletter.

KEY: discussion was held on the club house key. Sharon explained what happened and what she did Phone calls, house calls etc. to find out about the key. No one at the meeting or contacted Sharon privately knows anything about this key. If you know anything please contact Sharon ASAP.

Show: Sharon mentioned the show has been booked for quite a while now. She asked for voluntaries and some came forth to help. BUT any extra help would be much appreciated. She mentioned that the table set up needs to start up at the ramp near the storage area as the Remac co-op has moved down to the other end. So hopefully it will al work out.
